UCLouvain

lpols1224

2019

The Political and Administrative System in Belgium

In view of the health context linked to the spread of the coronavirus, the methods of organisation and evaluation of the learning units could be adapted in different situations; these possible new methods have been - or will be - communicated by the teachers to the students.

5 credits	37.5 h	Q2

Teacher(s)	de Visscher Christian ;De Winter Lieven ;Rihoux Benoît ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	During the course, students will: - Study the basic structures of Belgian political society (divisions, pillars, consociationalism, etc.) and analyse the political balance of power, including at election time; - Take a closer look at the electoral and Party systems, the parties as such, Parliament, the government and the political elites; - Study the structures and operation of the public sector.
Aims	1 By the end of this course, students should have acquired a good knowledge of the socio-political and administrative workings of the Belgian political system and acquired a capacity to analyse the events which govern the country's political landscape. This will be the particular focus of the Current Affairs Seminar. - - - - The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Content	Part 1: AP Frognier (10.) 1. Belgium's national foundations 2. Belgium's socio-political foundations 3. Divisions and Parties 4. The balance of power between the political actors Part 2: L. De Winter(10.) 1. Electoral system and Party system during the post-war period 2. The Belgian political Parties: ideology, organisation and operation 3. Structure and operation of Parliament 4. Formation, structures and decision-making mechanisms of the federal governments 5. Partocracy, clientelism, corruption and political revivals Part 3: Visscher C. of (10.) 1. Analysis of the public sector in Belgium: forms of administrations and public services: methods of organisation, manpower, relations with the political power 2. Resource management within the public administration (budget; public service) 3. The politico-administrative system in action: study of the public policy cycle, from introduction to implementation (using concrete examples)
Other infos	Course entry requirements: Students must have taken the Public Law course. Foreign students taking this course during an exchange programme will need to plan for an alternative way of covering this material. Evaluation: written examination Course materials: Students will receive a reading portfolio
Faculty or entity in charge	ESPO

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)

Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Aims
Approfondissement 'Principes de maîtrise de l'actualité'	LMOND100P	5
Minor in Political Sciences	LSPOL100I	5
Master [120] in Public Administration	ADPU2M	5
Bachelor in Political Sciences: General	SPOL1BA	5
Bachelor in Human and Social Sciences	HUSO1BA	5
Master [120] in Political Sciences: General	SPOL2M	5
Master [60] in Political Sciences: General	SPOL2M1	5
Master [120] in Political Sciences: International Relations	SPRI2M	5
Bachelor in Sociology and Anthropology	SOCA1BA	5		