| Prerequisites : | European Council entry-level for these same skills ("b1" level). |
| Main themes : | The topics addressed during the classes aim at arousing the interests of young adults: we shall speak about hobbies, leisure, holidays, studies and possible future professions, daily life and contemporary events, trips and relations with others, and the culture (that is, the habits and customs) of the countries that speak the target language. The focus is on communication and accuracy (e.g. pronunciation and grammar). |
| Aims : | By the end of the course, the student should have reached an upper-intermediate level in listening, reading, speaking (both individual and interactive) and writing. This course is not open to beginners. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit". |
| Evaluation methods : | Lectures: continuous assessment (tests in class and assignments: 20% of the final mark) + written exam (reading comprehension, vocabulary, writing: 30% of the final mark) Tutorials: continuous assessment (10% of the final mark) + speaking exam (20% of the final mark) + listening exam (20% of the final mark) |
| Teaching methods : | 30 hours of (so called) lecture course: presentation of the "basic texts" (articles and recordings) indicating the thematic areas to be addressed during the course. 30 hours of organized tutorials (partly done in the language lab): speaking (15 hours) and listening exercises (15 hours). |
