Prerequisites :	LGLOR 1611 and LGLOR 1612.
Main themes :	Alternating with LGLOR 2771, this course deals with the following themes: 1. The scripts that are used in the texts studied; 2. The vocabulary of the texts; 3. The nominal and verbal morphology; 4. Questions of syntax.
Aims :	Mastery of the Luwian language, a sister language of Hittite, and an introduction to Hurrian and Hattic. At the end of this course, the student will be capable to read and translate a Luwian text, and to begin to read a text in Hurrian or Hattic. To achieve this goal, he will have learnt the Luwian hieroglyphic script, as well as the vocabulary and grammar of these languages. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods :	Continuous evaluation during the year. Written exam of an unseen text followed by its oral correction.
Teaching methods :	The part "Initiation" takes the form of lectures. The texts prepared by the students are corrected and are the subject of grammatical, historic and cultural commentaries.
Content :	The lectures of LGLOR2772 (2012-2013) are relating to the careful study of hieroglyphic luwian inscriptions from the end of the second millenium B.C. The teaching is magistral with the cooperation of the students who receive a syllabus. The knowledge of the hittite language is necessarily. The evaluation is continual.
