UCL Université catholique de Louvain LANGL1532 2010-2011

Upper-Intermediate Business English

5.0 credits

60.0 h

1+2q

Teacher(s) :	Delghust Jean-Luc (coordinator) ; Stas Françoise ; Neyt Philippe ; Henriet Marielle (coordinator) ;
Language :	Anglais
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	LOUVaIn-Id-NEUVE Reading Comprehension: - Students should be able to read autonomously and understand in detail factual texts and specialised articles related to their field of studies. - The course prepares students to understand course notes written in English which will be used in the "Maitrise" (Master -s degree) cycle. Lower C1 level of the "Common European Framework for Languages." Listening Comprehension Individual: - Students should be able to fully understand the content and structure of conferences and complex presentations provided the the subject matter is familiar to them (i.e. linked to their field of studies). - Students should be able to understand most television and radio programmes dealing with their field of studies. - The course prepares students to follow specialised courses given in English during the "Maitrise" (Master -s degree) cycle. - Students should be able to follow argumentation in a conversation between different interlocutors within the man socio-professional contexts. Upper B2 level of the "Common European Framework for Languages." Speaking Skills Individual: - Students should be able to present a topic prepared in advance in a clear and methodical way while using visual supports (PowerPoint, OHP, .) and with only occasional reference to their notes. Interactive: - Students should be able to communicate fluently and effectively in conversations no both social and professional levels. - Students should be able to c
	Enabling students to adequately master vocabulary (general vocabulary and specific vocabulary related to their field of study simple and complex language structures, as well as phonetics, in order for them to be able to communicate fluently an spontaneously while ensuring ease of communication for both the students and their interlocutors. Culture: Making students aware of intercultural differences within the context of increasing globalisation and international busines
Aims :	transactions. The general aim of this course is to improve students - communication skills. The main emphasis is on improving speaking skill but writing, reading and listening skills, as well as the development of specific economic vocabulary skills, also feature as part of the course. The aim is to enable students to adapt to their future socio-professional lives. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".

Content :	The course mainly deals with speaking skills. The course is based on themes or language skills related to the students - field of studies and these are covered through the use of audio- and videotapes and specialised authentic texts. Various conversation activities (role-plays, discussions, simulations, .) are used to exploit and develop each theme while also allowing students to use new vocabulary and structures. Students are also encouraged to study and broaden their vocabulary range through the self-study of a specialised vocabulary book in addition to the study of vocabulary from texts, course notes and their textbook. Grammatical and lexical structures are revised through self-study. Teacher-correction enables students to master the language more accurately. Communication techniques specific to the professional domain (presentations, meetings, negotiations, telephoning, travelling abroad, .) are integrated into class activities. Students make presentations on economic topics using the presentation techniques they have been taught in class. Students are given advice and tips on writing skills and produce written pieces (report, memo, e-mail) which are corrected by their teachers.
Other infos :	Prerequisites: Students should have followed the intermediate-level course ANGL 1332 (BAC 2) or a course of a similar level. Assessment: Continuous assessment (preparation for class, active participation, presentations, language skills
	.) Written exam Oral exam: - Group oral - Individual oral
	Course material: Course notes Textbook (Mark POWELL, in company) Specialised vocabulary book (Sue ROBBINS, Business Vocabulary in Practice) E-learning platform (Moodle UCL) Audio- and videotapes used in class and available at the Self-Tuition Centre
	Others: - Class: 54 hours - Self-study: 66 hours Pedagogical accompaniment: Groups of maximum 18 students. Every teacher has an "Individual Feedback Session" with his/her students. Every teacher is available during his/her office-hour and can be contacted by e-mail. Individual advice and guidance at the Self-Tuition Centre (CAA).
Cycle and year of study :	> Preparatory year for Master in Management > Bachelor in Business Engineering > Preparatory year fo Master in European Studies
Faculty or entity in charge:	ILV