

5.0 credits

30.0 h

Teacher(s) :	Rousseva Ekaterina ; Van Hecke Elisabeth ;
Language :	Anglais
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The course starts with an overall presentation of the selected topic by the teachers and a list of proposed issues that could be handled by the students Students write a report which is, at the end of the course, presented to the audience, commented by a referee and followed by a general discussion.
Aims :	Ability to identify and confront legal and economic standpoint towards a specific issue Ability to identify relevant arguments, to write scientific essays and to present and defend them The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Content :	Teaching method : based on a combination of individual and collective learning - Individual : Writing of essays based on a law and economic approach of the topic - Collective : Based on the oral presentation of these essays , the organised discussion allowing the student to deepen his understanding of the specificities of an interdisciplinary approach
Other infos :	Basic knowledge of European microeconomic Policies (trade, competition and industry) and intermediate microeconomics course  50% based on active participation in class discussions and 50% based on written contributions and their oral presentation  List of relevant studies and documents published by the EU, web sites  100% attendance required
Cycle and year of study :	&gt; Master [120] in Law &gt; Master [60] in Economics : General &gt; Master [120] in Economics: General &gt; Master [120] in Management
Faculty or entity in charge:	ECON