

Europeanisation of national political systems and European policies of the Member States

5.0 credits	30.0 h	2q
-------------	--------	----

Teacher(s) :	de Visscher Christian ; Aubin David ; Duez Denis ;
Language :	Anglais
Place of the course	Bruxelles
Main themes :	The course enlightens how European policies, decisions and legal system interfere in the national policies and how Member States shape their national preferences to participate in the bargaining at the European level.
Aims :	This course prepares the student to take into account the growing involvement of the European policies, politics and polity in the national political systems. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods :	Written or oral examination.
Content :	The course is divided into two parts. Part I encompasses the several aspects of the europeanisation of the policies, politics and even of the legal and constitutional system of the Member States, with an emphasis on the europeanisation of the Belgian system. Part II analyses and assesses the participation of the member States in the EU institutional decision making, with an emphasis on the Belgian case and its specific arrangements concerning the role of the sub-national entities in the shaping of the Belgian positions on the EU issues.
Other infos :	Language: English and French. Prerequisite: none. Support: to be determined by the professor in charge.
Cycle and year of study :	> Master [120] in Political Sciences: General > Master [120] in Public Administration > Master [120] in European Studies
Faculty or entity in charge:	EURO