Teacher(s) :	Depré Olivier ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	We shall either study a cardinal topic of phenomenology through different texts from different authors, or deepen our understanding of one author through a study of some of that author's main texts.
Aims :	By the end of this course, the student should have become familiar with a specific aspect of the phenomenological method (descriptive, hermeneutical, linguistic, etc.). The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Content :	This year, the lecture will concern Hans Jonas' Philosophical Essays, Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1974. This book is the most exemplary of the unity of his work and of its phenomenological origins.
