Teacher(s) :	Wénin André ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	To achieve this, the course introduces current research and debates over the composition history of the Pentateuch and the deuteronomistic history, including outlines of Chronist work. The course also provides a brief survey on the main literary genres of this literature and reflection on their interest for history and theology. Finally, the course involves reading some important OT texts, using the present exegetical methods and pointing out certain axes of theological and anthropological interest. A part of this course consists in practical reading exercises of texts.
Aims :	By the end of this course, the student should be prepared to make a reading of texts in the Pentateuch and the historical books of the OT on a basis of a general knowledge of this literature. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
