Teacher(s) :	Scheuer Jacques ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	To achieve that objective, - one will propose the keys which enable the student to understand the debates in the field of Christian theology of religions, mainly since Vatican II; - from that perspective, one will study particular themes in representatives of several theological currents.
Aims :	At the end of this activity, the student will be able to locate and understand the main issues of the Christian theological reflection on the plurality of religions. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Content :	In the first part, we shall examine some of the mutual perceptions taking place in interreligious encounters and the theological reflections which they produce. In the second part, we shall study some representative types of post-Vatican II Christian theologies of religious pluralism.
