Teacher(s) :	Fallon Marc ; Sarolea Sylvie ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The course focuses on the influence of fundamental rights on private international law in Europe. It analyses the impact of the European Convention on Human Rights and of the EC Treaty on private international law
Aims :	This course proposes an in-depth study of specific questions of private international law (conflict of laws and conflict of jurisdictions). It aims at acquiring a better understanding of the policy and of the way the rule of law is implemented in practice. The course is based on participatory teaching methods (learning through projects or problems, review of the relevant case-law and doctrine, debates with guest speakers, field studies ...) which allow the students to develop independently a critical, forward-looking and inventive look on public international law. Students are encouraged to participate and to get involved in learning, which has both an individual and a collective dimension. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
