

5.0 credits

30.0 h

2q

Teacher(s) :	Verhaegen Etienne ; Pleyers Geoffrey ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The course will start by a presentation of the main disciplinary approaches to globalization. Then it will focus on a set of key issues such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Actors' strategies (individuals, group and international organizations) - Interaction between socio-political and natural systems - Sharing of resources and conflicts between global and local actors - Articulation between resources reproductive system and social systems - Social fragmentation and exclusion at national level - Infra and inter national inequalities - Social capital, Human capital and impoverishment.
Aims :	The objective is to provide to the student the analytical tools for a better understanding of development issues from an interdisciplinary perspective and by emphasizing the spatial and time dimensions. The objective is to provide a better understanding of the evolution of contemporary societies from the perspective of these two dimensions. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Other infos :	The course DVLP 2675 is a good background to this course.
Cycle and year of study :	> Master [120] in Sociology > Master [120] in Population and Development Studies
Faculty or entity in charge:	PSAD