Teacher(s) :	Deproost Paul ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Inline resources:	Via the iCampus server, the student can have access to the specific server for Classical languages : http://pot-pourri.fltr.ucl.ac.be/itineria/default.htm
Prerequisites :	The course is intended for students who have followed the courses of ancient Latin at Bachelor level, or able to demonstrate a reading level considered sufficient by the lecturer.
Main themes :	The course deals with the following themes: 1. The translation of two major Latin literary works of the Middle Age and Renaissance linked to the history of European literature; 2. The problem of establishing the text; 3. Systematic commentary presenting the context of the work, as well as the literary and human values contained therein.
Aims :	Thorough analysis of the works of Latin authors of the middle ages and the Renaissance. At the end of this course, the student will be capable of translating, analysing and commenting on texts of average to advanced difficulty. He will also be able to explain their historical and cultural context, to highlight their moral values, and, as an extension to the lectures, to undertake a personal research in written form. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods :	Oral exam on: - the texts seen during the course and the extract translated by the student; - an evaluation of the written essay prepared by the student.
Teaching methods :	During the lectures, the translations prepared by the student will be verified and will be the object of the most thorough commentary possible.
Content :	The work chosen for the course is Utopia by Thomas More. After an introduction which explains the context of the author and his work, the translation is interspersed with a systematic commentary. The student will also prepare a written individual work of 10 pages to be presented at the oral exam: it will consist of a translation of an extract from the same author and an essay on a subject with a bearing on the subject of the course.
Bibliography :	A bibliography is available on-line on the iCampus server. Reference works ; - F. Gaffiot, Dictionnaire illustré latin-français, Paris, 2000 (nombreuses rééditions). - A. Cart, P.
