

5.0 credits

30.0 h

Teacher(s) :	Jonckheer Pierre ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	This course presents the political and juridical regime that constitutes the European Union, as well as the examination of its development projects, its stakes and the debates which they arouse (European Constitution, enlargement, ...). A second part is dedicated to a more extensive examination of certain Union's policies, especially in the economic and social field. The position of the actors and the examination of the questions of the moment shall feed the reports and the discussion.
Aims :	At the end of this course, the students will be able : - to analyze the orientations of the economic and social policies as defined inside the institutions of the European Union - to master the present stakes of the european politics : projets of a Constitution, Union's enlargement - to determine the interactions between the strategies of different economic and social actors and their influence on the economic and social reality The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Cycle and year of study :	> Master [120] in Economic and Social Policy
Faculty or entity in charge:	OPES