Teacher(s) :	Roskam Isabelle ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The course deals with the issue of development in an intercultural perspective and in relation to the different socio-cultural environments within a single culture. It defines the notions of "culture", "socio-economic environment", "ecological model", "universals" and variations according to culture, "deficit" and "difference" and "compensatory education". This issue is covered through topics relating to cognitive and language development, social and relational development, personality development and values. These are examined in various contexts such as immigration and the approach of non-Western cultures.
Aims :	The course is designed to - to show the interrelations between the concepts, research methods and complexity of socio-cultural changes ; - to identify the problems related to the transposition of appraisal tools from one culture to another ; - to outline the educational implications and the clinical perspectives. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
