Content :	2012-2013 The seminar will focus on the concept of work decision: what "decide" and what dimensions of the subject is tested in this act? Rational and argumentative dimension is the only place it ethical commitment to a decision? In this context, it means a deadlock decision? On the relationship between the act of deciding, experience and a reinterpretation of the latter, we focus on the "status of Paschal Triduum" to think "Decision" and its potential deadlocks. How the desired target, the impasse experienced and rebirth as possible included in the "passage" of the three days they can illuminate what it means to "decide"?
