

LGERM1334

2014-2015

Dutch Literature I: (early) modern period

4.0 credits	30.0 h	1q
		-

literature); - Presentation of the history of Dutch literature and context European productions; - Description of its periodization from the Middle Ages to the Synthesis of the major literary productions and confrontate Compulsory readings of literary texts illustrate the course.  At the end of the course, students should be able to read and understand texts in Dutch, from the Middle Age explain the main developments of Dutch literature from the (linguistic, cultural, philosophical, aesthetic, ideological, so situate the major authors and literary texts on a timeline of the literary facts by means of the history of literary critinstitution, etc.); - critically discuss the legitimacy and the validity of the pome brief personal comments (essay, dissertation) on a lange of the contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section erecan be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section erecan be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section erecan be accessed at the end of the literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam;  2. Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a document the individual project at the end of the bachelors program.  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, congenes, periods. These (or other representative) texts are regenes, periods. These (or other representative) texts are regeneral texts.	ng the course LGERM1134 are essential. is of its methodological and disciplinary foundations (especially Dutch ualization bearing in mind the main cultural, philosophical and political Prerequisites:  The methodological and critical competences acquired du literatures:  - Reflection on the concept of "history of literature": analy literature); - Presentation of the history of Dutch literature and context European productions; - Description of its periodization from the Middle Ages to the Synthesis of the major literary productions and confrontate Compulsory readings of literary texts illustrate the course.  Aims:  At the end of the course, students should be able to: - read and understand texts in Dutch, from the Middle Age - explain the main developments of Dutch literature from the (linguistic, cultural, philosophical, aesthetic, ideological, so - situate the major authors and literary texts on a timeline of the literary facts by means of the history of literary critinstitution, etc.); - critically discuss the legitimacy and the validity of the p some brief personal comments (essay, dissertation) on a land the contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section end the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam;  Evaluation methods:  Evaluation of knowledge and contents related to the lecture Evaluation of literary know-how and learning competences of the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam;  Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a document the individual project at the end of the bachelors program.  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, congenres, periods. These (or other representative) texts are respectively.	is of its methodological and disciplinary foundations (especially Dutch
Prerequisites:  The methodological and critical competences acquired du  Reflection on the concept of "history of literature": analy literature); Presentation of the history of Dutch literature and contex European productions; Description of its periodization from the Middle Ages to the Synthesis of the major literary productions and confrontal Compulsory readings of literary texts illustrate the course.  Aims:  At the end of the course, students should be able to: read and understand texts in Dutch, from the Middle Age explain the main developments of Dutch literature from the (linguistic, cultural, philosophical, aesthetic, ideological, so: situate the major authors and literary texts on a timeline of the literary facts by means of the history of literary critinstitution, etc.); critically discuss the legitimacy and the validity of the psome brief personal comments (essay, dissertation) on a lange of the explaination of this Teaching Unit to the development can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section end that the explanation of literary know-how and learning competences to the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam; Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a docume The individual project at the end of the bachelors program.  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, congenres, periods. These (or other representative) texts are regeries, periods. These (or other representative) texts are regeries.	is of its methodological and disciplinary foundations (especially Dutch
Main themes:  - Reflection on the concept of "history of literature": analy literature); - Presentation of the history of Dutch literature and context European productions; - Description of its periodization from the Middle Ages to the Synthesis of the major literary productions and confrontal Compulsory readings of literary texts illustrate the course.  Aims:  - At the end of the course, students should be able to: - read and understand texts in Dutch, from the Middle Age - explain the main developments of Dutch literature from the (linguistic, cultural, philosophical, aesthetic, ideological, so: - situate the major authors and literary texts on a timeline of the literary facts by means of the history of literary critic institution, etc.); - critically discuss the legitimacy and the validity of the pome brief personal comments (essay, dissertation) on a lange accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section error text and be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section error beautiful to the development can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section error beautiful to the lecture Evaluation of knowledge and contents related to the lecture Evaluation of literary know-how and learning competences 1. the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam; 2. Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a document The individual project at the end of the bachelors program.  Teaching methods:  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, congenres, periods. These (or other representative) texts are referenced.	is of its methodological and disciplinary foundations (especially Dutch literature); - Presentation of the history of Dutch literature and context European productions; - Description of its periodization from the Middle Ages to the Synthesis of the major literary productions and confrontate Compulsory readings of literary texts illustrate the course.  At the end of the course, students should be able to: - read and understand texts in Dutch, from the Middle Age: - explain the main developments of Dutch literature from the (linguistic, cultural, philosophical, aesthetic, ideological, so: - situate the major authors and literary texts on a timeline of the literary facts by means of the history of literary criticinstitution, etc.); - critically discuss the legitimacy and the validity of the pome brief personal comments (essay, dissertation) on a lange of the contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section end the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam;  2. Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a document the individual project at the end of the bachelors program.  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, congenes, periods. These (or other representative) texts are resulted.
- read and understand texts in Dutch, from the Middle Age - explain the main developments of Dutch literature from the (linguistic, cultural, philosophical, aesthetic, ideological, so - situate the major authors and literary texts on a timeline of the literary facts by means of the history of literary criticinstitution, etc.); - critically discuss the legitimacy and the validity of the p some brief personal comments (essay, dissertation) on a l The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section end  Evaluation methods:  Evaluation of knowledge and contents related to the lectur Evaluation of literary know-how and learning competences 1. the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam; 2. Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a docume The individual project at the end of the bachelors program  Teaching methods:  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, co- genres, periods. These (or other representative) texts are re-	-
Evaluation of literary know-how and learning competences  1. the summary of a literary text of a specific period, the text: oral exam; 2. Critical reading of chosen text with the help of a docume The individual project at the end of the bachelors program  Teaching methods:  The course includes lectures with multimedia elements, co genres, periods. These (or other representative) texts are re-	e Middle Ages to the 18th century and relate them to different contexts cial, political) as well as the European literary context; (periods, movements, generations) and show the distinctive features cism (aesthetics, genres, themes, poetics, genetics, media, reception, riodization used and write (from a historical and cultural perspective) erary text.
genres, periods. These (or other representative) texts are r	nummary of and a personal comment on a brief article on that literary
the students to carry out text analyses.  The course also contains interactive learning activities and	nmented readings in Dutch chosen in function of the themes, registers, and at home and prepared during tutorials. The tutorials (10 hours) help specific reading tasks (individual or collective).
Conton:	/ movements from the Middle Ages to the end of the 18th century. It ain figures and founding texts in Dutch literature and situates them in ocial, cultural).
Bibliography:
Other infos : Teaching material : texts, hand-outs, documents on I-cam

Cycle and year of study:	> Bachelor in Ancient and Modern Languages and Literatures  > Bachelor in Information and Communication  > Bachelor in Philosophy  > Bachelor in Pharmacy  > Bachelor in Ancient languages and Literatures: Classics  > Bachelor in Modern Languages and Literatures: German, Dutch and English  > Bachelor in Computer Science  > Bachelor in French and Romance Languages and Literatures: General  > Bachelor in Economics and Management  > Bachelor in Hotor skills: General  > Bachelor in Human and Social Sciences  > Bachelor in Modern Languages and Literatures: General  > Bachelor in Modern Languages and Literatures: General  > Bachelor in Political Sciences: General  > Bachelor in Political Sciences: General  > Bachelor in Ancient Languages and Literatures: Oriental Studies  > Bachelor in History  > Bachelor in History  > Bachelor in Biomedicine  > Bachelor in Engineering  > Bachelor in religious studies  > Preparatory year for Master in Modern Languages and Literatures: German, Dutch and English  > Certificat universitaire en langues et littératures germaniques
Faculty or entity in charge:	LMOD