LDEMO2601

2015-2016

Urbanization, internal and international migrations

5.0 credits	30.0 h	1q

Teacher(s) :	Bocquier Philippe ; Eggerickx Thierry ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	- Main concepts, data sources and methods for the study of migrations and urbanization - Main theories on international and internal migrations and urbanization - The development of international migrations : analysis of flows, characteristics of the migrants, migratory policies and integration " factors " - Internal migrations and the urbanization process: the role of migrations in urban development, urban-rural migration, the stages of the urbanization process, periurbanization, return migrations - Economic, social, political, demographic and individual determinants of migration - Demographic, economic, social and environmental consequences of internal and international migrations. - Do migrants have specific demographic behaviours?
Aims :	Master the theoretical and methodological tools to study urbanization, internal and international migration; knowledge of the main migratory flows (or trends) in the North as well as the South, and their determinants and consequences. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Other infos :	Written examination Course text and a portfolio of readings
Faculty or entity in charge:	PSAD

Programmes / formations proposant cette unité d'enseignement (UE)
Intitulé du programme	Sigle	Credits	Prerequis	Acquis d'apprentissage
Master [120] in Population and Development Studies	SPED2M	5	-	