2015-2016

Interdisciplinary seminar on Latin America

5.0 credits	30.0 h	1q

Teacher(s) :	Yépez Del Castillo Isabel ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The following themes will be analysed: I. The social construction of the territory; local society, actors and local initiatives. II. Local development, social identities and gender relations. III. International migrations and development.
Aims :	The seminar work should enable the student to check his/her own integration of the courses followed during the master and show his/her ability to analyse a specific theme linked to development studies. It should also enable to develop interdisciplinary research skills in team. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Other infos :	At least one of the two courses DVLP 2630 and DVLP 2631. The evaluation is based on a group research paper (70%). The 30% left represent each student contribution to the seminar dynamic and the oral presentation of the research paper (in the paper, the contribution of each group member has to be specified). Possible link between the seminar work and the field-work.
Faculty or entity in charge:	PSAD
