Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Aims :	A Master's 120 is conceived as the result of work of original research in which the student demonstrates a genuine capacity for understanding of economic reasoning, as taught in master classes, and its application to a specific topic. It is a work of a scientist whose goal is to provide a precise economic analysis to a given problem. This requires a systematic approach, which avoids the repetition of commonplaces to focus on the rigor of argumentation, the presentation of different viewpoints on the issue, the justification of arguments ... The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
