Prerequisites :	LGLOR 1142 and LGLOR 1143 or a course deemed equivalent by the lecturer. The prerequisite(s) for this Teaching Unit (Unité d'enseignement – UE) for the programmes/courses that offer this Teaching Unit are specified at the end of this sheet.
Main themes :	A study of prose works by Latin authors. This course deals with the following themes: 1. Translation of works of Latin authors of the classical period; 2. Explanation of specific grammatical points (morphology and syntax); 3. A commentary designed to put the work into context and to highlight the documentary and human values contained therein.
Aims :	At the end of the course the student will be able to analyse grammatically, to translate and comment upon texts of average difficulty. He will be able to explain the context, and to bring out the human values expressed therein. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Teaching methods :	The translations prepared by the students will be corrected during the course, and will be commented on as fully as possible. If necessary, the points of grammar will be revised as necessary.
Content :	The authors chosen for the course in 2014-2015 are Tacitus (the tragedy of Messalina) and Suetonius (Life of Caligula). After an introduction that puts the author and the text into context, the translation will be explained at a grammatical level, and will be accompanied by a commentary.
