UCL Université catholique de Louvain

LMCEU2305

2015-2016

Private international law - Actual issues

5.0 credits	15.0 h	1 + 2q

Teacher(s) :	Martin Denis ; De Kerchove Gilles ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The questions are chosen according to actuality. Lectures cover questions of family law as well as of commercial law, including contracts, torts, insolvency, company law, intellectual property law. It takes into account the European law aspects of private international law rules.
Aims :	This course proposes an in-depth study of current issues of private international law. These issues are presented under their conflict of laws and conflict of jurisdictions aspects. The course aims at acquiring a better understanding of the policy and of the way the rule of law is implemented in practice. In particular, the course prepares students who plan to practice in the field of international commercial or family law. It offers access to legal tools that are not analyzed in detail in the context of the general course on private international law but which are relevant in the daily international practice. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Other infos :	The general course of private international law is a prerequisite
Faculty or entity in charge:	BUDR

Programmes / formations proposant cette unité d'enseignement (UE)
Intitulé du programme	Sigle	Credits	Prerequis	Acquis d'apprentissage
Advanced Master in European Law	DREU2MC	15	-	