Current Issues of International Security

5.0 credits	15.0 h	2q

Teacher(s) :	Liegeois Michel ; Prelz Oltramonti Giulia (compensates Liegeois Michel) ;
Language :	Anglais
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes :	The main themes that will be treated depend on the recent international events. The theories and concepts rele-vant for their analysis will be explained at the beginning of the seminar and if necessary dealt with in depth as the need arises.
Aims :	The aim of the seminar is to enable the student to focus on a question of international security and to analyze it in terms of decision-making processes. He is therefore expected to be familiar with the main contemporary theo-ries and concepts of international security and apply them to specific problems in the framework of a rigorous and documented analysis. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Content :	The course takes the form of a seminar where each student is called upon to choose and develop his own re-search projet among the subjects proposed on the theme of international security. The teacher will propose a conceptual, theoretical and methodological framework supporting the students' projects.
