Comparative religious legislation

4.0 credits	30.0 h	2q

Teacher(s) :	Christians Louis-Léon ;
Language :	Français
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites :	Prerequisites : the course DROI1511 « Introduction au droit islamique » and one of the courses of canonical law THEO1210 ou THEO2272.
Main themes :	In order to achieve this aim, the course will - first compare the ways different religious traditions (Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic) relate to law - compare two selected institutions (e.g. the condition of justice, the distinction between cleric and non-cleric, apostasy, marriage, the relation to civil law, the relation to norms belonging to other religious traditions).
Aims :	At the end, the student shall be able to establish a comparison between religious legislations as a tool towards a better understanding of the variety of religious traditions and as a contribution to inter-religious dialogue. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods :	The evaluation will be made on the basis of a written work by about ten pages concerning an institution approached in a comparative way between two religious normative fields.
