Teacher(s) :	van Middelaar Luuk ;
Language :	Anglais
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites :	None.
Main themes :	The interdisciplinary seminar 'Thinking Europe' aims to propose a comprehensive perspective on Europe as simultaneously a geographic space, a diplomatic organisation of States, a civilizational and cultural entity, as well as a programme of legal and political unification embodied by the European Union. These different categories cannot be reduced one to another and must be seen in interaction, as examples taken from current events will show (Ukraine and the EU's enlargement; the case of the United Kingdom)
Aims :	Acquire the capacity to confront different categories and models to reflect on Europe. Develop a critical and interdisciplinary understanding of European integration, linking a long-term and short-term perspective. Using these skills in a professional context (writing an op-ed, participating in a radio debate). The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods :	Written or oral examination.
Bibliography :	Luuk van Middelaar, The Passage to Europe: How A Continent Became a Union, Yale University Press, paperback 2014 (Prologue).
