| Teacher(s) : | Dupuis Michel ; |
| Language : | Français |
| Place of the course | Louvain-la-Neuve |
| Prerequisites : | An introductory philosophy course and reading knowledge of English. |
| Main themes : | We shall proceed in two steps: 1. An examination of Western philosophical notions concerning interculturalism and philosophy's interest in foreign cultures; 2. An examination of selected Asian and African conceptions of interculturalism and the role of non-Western cultures in the philosophical project as such. |
| Aims : | The aim of this course is to examine the cultural dimension of philosophical reflection and the role of interculturalism in philosophical thinking. Furthermore, the course introduces the students to the basic tenets of non-Western thought. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit". |
