Evaluation methods :	During the term: formative assessment. In January: four-hour written summative exam (German-into-French translation project), which will be graded by a team of lecturers. For the January exam, students draw one of the two specialized translation fields chosen at the start of the academic year among economic translation, legal translation and scientific and technical translation.
Teaching methods :	Compulsory workshops in the computer lab.
Content :	This course sets out to simulate the realistic conditions of a translation project. Students will have to tackle the various steps of a German-into-French translation project with professionalism, from order to delivery (i.e. administrative tasks, documentary and terminological research, translation, revision). Students will be asked to translate one or several texts dealing with the two specialized translation fields selected at the start of the academic year, among economic translation, legal translation and scientific/technical translation. The different tasks will be carried out in the computer lab, meeting specific deadlines and relying on CAT tools when appropriate.
