Prerequisites :	For allophone students with a competency level of B2 in both English and German
Main themes :	Translating texts from the fields of economics, law, technology and/or science
Aims :	Contribution of teaching unit to learning outcomes assigned to programme This unit contributes to the acquisition and development of the following learning outcomes, as assigned to the Master's degree in translation 1.1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 4.5, 4.7 Specific learning outcomes on completion of teaching unit On completing this unit the student is able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Undertake documentary and terminological research relevant to the source text employing rigour and critical acumen; · Structure and utilize documentary and terminological research findings; Transpose a specialized text in German into written French paying attention to meaning and register and the terminology specific to the domain in question. The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods :	Formative and/or partly summative assessment of the student's work over the course of the term. Summative assessment in January: written exam (translation project from English into German 'one full day), to be corrected by a board of teachers. The written exam (summative assessment) will consist in the translation of one or several texts on economic, legal, scientific and/or technical matters in connection with the topics dealt with over the course of the term. For students who have to re-sit the summative exam during a second session, the only grade taken into account will be the one obtained in September. The grade from the continuous assessment will not be taken into account.
Teaching methods :	In-class sessions, in computer room
Content :	The aim of this teaching unit is to progressively take the students to the real-life working conditions of a translation project. Therefore, the students will have to manage the various stages of a translation project from English into German, from the purchase order to the delivery (administrative tasks, document and terminology research, translation, proofreading and revision). Among other tasks, the students will be asked to translate, in class and within a specific period of time, using computer-assisted translation tools if and when necessary, one or several texts pertaining to the fields of economic translation, legal translation and scientific or technical translation.
