Teacher(s)	Simon Anne-Catherine ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	LFIAL1530 "Introduction aux sciences du langage" The prerequisite(s) for this Teaching Unit (Unité d'enseignement – UE) for the programmes/courses that offer this Teaching Unit are specified at the end of this sheet.
Main themes	Course activities are articulated around three axes: - acquisition and manipulation of theoretical concepts useful for the formal description of linguistic facts linked to the different fields of language; - practical application of linguistic analysis methods applied to contemporary French on the basis of remarkable linguistic phenomenon (ex. French liaison); - reflection on French as a mother tongue, its communicative resources (production and reception) and its modes of operation.
Aims	By the end of the course and exercise tutorials, students will be able to: - apply the analytical methods of the the main fields of linguistics (phonetics/phonology, morphology, lexical analysis, syntax,) within formal (structural, functional and generative methods) or variationist (esp. sociolinguistic) approaches to contemporary French; these methods must be applied to attested or created (introspective) data; - distinguish scientific and normative points of view on language and take a critical stance towards value judgements about French usage; - to relate this metalinguistic knowledge to the development of linguistic and discursive skills in French.  ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
