This biannual learning is being organized in 2017-2018

Teacher(s)	Fabry Geneviève ;
Language :	Spanish
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course will examine first how can be defined the topic we can find in a determined corpus : the work of mourning. After, we will analyze hispano-american literary works (poetry : Gelman ; novel : Fuentes) and see how they elaborate the selected topic.
Aims	1 The aim of this course is to help the student acquire a scholarly method to read and analyse literary texts written by one or a few hispano-american author(s) that share a common theme, to analyse their poetics and its context. The theoretical reflexion will be stressed. At the end of the course, the students will be able to read and write essays in the studied field by relying on the literary knowledge they have acquired. ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Presentation of oral partial work during the semester and an oral exam
Teaching methods	The course will work as a seminar and based on a reader incorporating both theoretical reflections literary works. The analytical approach will be a back and forth between reading and classical textual and contextual interpretation in the light of theoretical sources.
Content	The course aims to analyze the nature and forms of expression of love in a large corpus of Spanish American contemporary poetic texts (Darío, Agustini, Neruda, Huidobro, Paz) and novels (Cortazar, García Marquez, Roa Bastos, Manuel Puig). The analysis is conducted on the basis of theoretical considerations, coming mainly from philosophy and psychoanalysis.
