Evaluation methods	The first session (end of semester) overall evaluation covers the student's work accomplished during the translation workshop. Home work (abiding by the terms and specifications of the translation project he or she will be submitted to as well as accomplishing the required « tasks » in due time) will be as important as presence and participation in the in-situ training sessions of the workshop. The student's presence is requested at all in-situ training sessions of the translation workshop. The final evaluation of the translation workshop may be completed or replaced - in agreement with the students - by an in-situ 4-hour translation exam to be completed in the working conditions of a professional translator's workstation during the official examination session. The student will be given a text directly related to the special field of study of the semester, as well as other related tasks to complete in accordance with the specifications. The second session (September session) overall evaluation consists of an in-situ 4-hour translation exam in the working conditions of a professional translator's workstation. The student will be given a text directly related to the special field of study of the semester, as well as other related tasks to complete in accordance with the specifications.
Teaching methods	Workshop. The text to be translated will be introduced as well as its specific difficulties for the translator. The analysis of the text and rewriting in French is made first together and then individually. The translation options must be explained by the students. After the workshop students compare their own translation with a published one.
Content	Classical literary texts in Russian, without slang or archaisms. Among them a short novel and/or an excerpt from a play by A. Chekhov.
