Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	Chronological survey of all French literature of the period under consideration. The course takes care to supply historical reference points (continuities, relationships, changes, distinct shifts) and to show literature in relation to its cultural, political, social and religious contexts. It alternates between the presentation of overall features (identification of literary currents, development of literary genres) and the presentation of specific texts.
Aims	1 Situate literature in its different contexts (historical and formal); master the main lines of its development. ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Continuous assessment throughout the term and written examination as part of the exam session.
Teaching methods	Formal lectures with a variety of teaching support (reading extracts of literary works, PowerPoint slides).
Content	The course is divided into three parts, each one given by one of the co-leaders (Mme Van Hemelryck for the Middle Ages, Mme Guiderdoni for the 16th and 17th centuries, M. Zanone for the 18th century). It operates from the perspective of a literary history that is culturally and politically contextualised. After an introductory session on each period, the subject matter is approached through literary genres (theatre, the novel, poetry and others); the conceptual and vocabulary tools needed to analyse each of them are highlighted. More specifically, students' attention is drawn to the material conditions of the production and diffusion of the works in question. There is also an examination of the critical issues involved in the periodisation of literature and, consequently, of the methods of literary history.
