| Teacher(s) | Delmotte Myriam ; |
| Language : | French |
| Place of the course | Louvain-la-Neuve |
| Main themes | The aim of this course is to help the student acquire a scholarly method to analyze literary texts (semiotics), and to situate its forms and figures in their historical and cultural context |
| Aims | 1 At the end of the course, the student will be able to understand the specificity of literary representations (verbal images, figures and forms). ---- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit". |
| Evaluation methods | Written examination. |
| Teaching methods | The course is accompanied by PowerPoint presentations. The information is also on iCampus. |
| Content | This class will study how authors' imaginaries are inserted into and make the material of literary textuality. We will analyse the structure of the forms and figures that are active in the literary text, through narratological and semiological approaches. We will address the following issues: intertextual sources (literary, mythological, etc.), and other sources (artistic, religious, anthropological...), as well as the impact of their particular context (geographic, historical, social, psychological...). It will also deal with the reception of works, understood as the encounter of two imaginaries (the author's and the reader's) within the text. |
| Bibliography | La bibliographie est déterminée chaque année en fonction de la problématique choisie. Elle se trouve sur icampus. |
| Other infos | The corpus for study comes from contemporary French literature (19 th century to the present day). |
