

In view of the health context linked to the spread of the coronavirus, the methods of organisation and evaluation of the learning units could be adapted in different situations; these possible new methods have been - or will be - communicated by the teachers to the students.

Main themes	The course is divided into two main chapters: (I) EU Courts System Considering the specificities of the EU legal order, the professor highlights the relations, similarities and differences between national judges and EU judges. The fundamental characteristics of the EU judicial institution are then presented. After a brief historical overview of the establishment of the Court of Justice, the General Court (formerly the Court of First Instance) and specialised courts, their structure, composition and procedures are being described. The division of competences between the two levels of jurisdiction are treated at this stage. This will be the occasion to consider the three different aspects of the Court of Justice's activity: Constitutional Court, Supreme Court and, when dealing with references for preliminary rulings, the centre of a network linking it to national courts. (II) The various types of proceedings All the different types of proceedings before the Court of Justice of the European Union are being studied at length: action for failure to fulfil obligations, action for annulment (as well as the plea for illegality), action for failure to act, references for preliminary rulings (on the interpretation or validity of EU law), actions implicating the non-contractual liability of the Union or of a Member State for a breach of EU law, and request for an opinion. For each of them, the legal basis, potential applicants and defendants, procedure, effects, conditions for a valid action as well as the relevant (national or European) court are being analysed.
Aims	Following the course of European Law (LDROI1226) taught in the programme of Bachelor of Laws, EU Litigation aims at providing students with a complete overview of the judicial mechanisms foreseen by the TEU and TFEU to ensure the implementation of EU law. Students who pass the final exam will be able to identify situations in which proceedings can be appropriate, define the type of action to be taken and understand the procedure to be followed to this end. ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Written exam.
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. As much as possible and considering the number of enrolled students, participative teaching methods are promoted. Teacher will illustrate the course with numerous examples derived from their experience and invite students to apply their recently obtained knowledge to concrete situations. Students are moreover requested to present a judgment (taken from the list of relevant case-law provided by the professor) to their peers. A visit to the Court of Justice of the European Union is organized in order to enable students to attend a public hearing of a case introduced beforehand during the course and to explore on the spot the institution they study.
Bibliography	L'ouvrage de référence pour le cours est le suivant : M. WATHELET et J. WILDEMEERSCH, Contentieux européen (2^{ème} édition), Bruxelles, Larcier, 2014 (ouvrage en deux volumes).
