

In view of the health context linked to the spread of the coronavirus, the methods of organisation and evaluation of the learning units could be adapted in different situations; these possible new methods have been - or will be - communicated by the teachers to the students.

8 credits

90.0 h

Q2

Teacher(s)	Romainville Céline ;Verdussen Marc ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The subjects studied include: 1. The Constitution 2. Citizens 3. Political authorities 4. The federal powers 5. The federated powers 6. The division of powers 7. The federal functions 8. The federated functions 9. Crisis procedures. The course consists of lectures completed, where necessary, by other teaching methods. The syllabus should be available to the students at the beginning of the term. Compulsory sessions of practical training (14 hours) provide the students with the opportunity to develop a practical approach of the subjects taught. These sessions are prepared by the students, whose performances are evaluated by an assistant. Together with the head of the department, the teacher sees that the practical training and the lectures are coherent and well connected, including with respect to the evaluation.
Aims	The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Faculty or entity in charge	BUDR