This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2019-2020 !

Teacher(s)	Obsomer Claude ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	In-depth study of the language and texts of New Kingdom Egypt. Alternately with LGLOR2625, this course deals with the following themes: 1. An initiation into Late Egyptian and the translation, with commentaries, of a text (15 hours lectures); 2. Personal translation of an epigraphic text from the XVIIIth Dynasty (10 hours exercises); 3. An initiation into hieratic writing (5 hours exercises).
Aims	1 At the end of this course the student will be capable to read, transliterate and translate easily epigraphic and literary texts from the New Kingdom. In addition, he will have been introduced to hieratic writing and to Late Egyptian, and will have read a text of the Ramesside période. ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Oral exam based on written preparation.
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Translations are done based on previous preparation by the students. The correction of the transliteration on the blackboard emphasises the structure and composition of the phrases, as well as an analysis of the verbal forms that are encountered. A commentary on the historical or religious questions completes the grammatical analysis of the text.
Content	The course aims to deepen and enlarge the knowledge and practice of the language. According to the year, the themes treated will be studied in the light of the following texts: 1. Text in neo-Egyptian: the Aton hymns, the Bulletin of Kadash, the tale of the two Brothers, Poetry, Papyrus Harris I, etc. 2. The individual translation: the biography of Ahmes son of Abama, Narrative of Punt, royal stela, etc. 3. Reading of an extract of a text in hieratic writing: pMillingen, pHarris 1, pRaifé, etc.
Inline resources	The Moodle server allows one to obtain: - notes for the initiation into neo-Egyptian. - original photographs of the inscriptions for translations - copies of texts available in numerical form.
