This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2019-2020 !

Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	Study of the Phoenician language. Alternating with LGLOR 2711 (Ugaritic), the course deals with the following themes: 1. An introduction to the Phoenician script; 2. Vocabulary and the specificities of the Phoenician grammar; 3. Translation of texts accompanied by a philological commentary
Aims	1 At the end of this course, the student will be capable to read, translate and analyse texts of average difficulty. In order to achieve this goal, he will have been introduced to Phoenician script, and will have acquired a basic vocabulary. ---- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. The evaluation of the students is continuous, but there is an oral exam at the end of the year on the reading and translation of a text seen during the year, as well as justification of grammar points.
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. This is not a course of lectures, the students prepare texts which are discussed during the course with the grammatical points highlighted.
Content	Amongst the western Semitic languages, Phoenician is the language spoken from the 12th century B.C. in what is now the Lebanon (Byblos, Tyre and Sidon) and the later in Carthage (Punic). The course deals with the important inscriptions especially Ahiram, Yehimlik, Kilamuwa Karatepe, Yehawmilk, Tabnit, Eshmunazar.
