This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2019-2020 !

Teacher(s)	Fabry Geneviève ;
Language :	Spanish
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course consists of a comprehensive study of Spanish literary texts. Philological, linguistic, contextual information, etc will allow students to deepen their understanding of the works. Some theoretical and methodological considerations and critical use of the secondary literature on the works will allow them to produce their own reading and interpretation.
Aims	1 At the end of the course, students will be able to develop a deeper interpretation, verbatim, methodologically and theoretically based, on one or more work (s) .Major (s) of Spanish literature , which has (have) the subject of the course. There also will be able to develop an epistemological reflection about the critical corpus on the work in question. ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Presentation of an essay
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. The course consists of a careful and rigorous analysis of texts of Teresa of Avila (1515-1582) and John of the Cross (1542-1591), based on philological research, historical and more recent literature.
Content	After a brief historical-literary contextualization, these works will be considered under three main headings: 1) a textual and philological analysis, 2) a hermeneutical approach that questions the relationship of contemporary literary criticism to the mystical poetry, 3) an analysis of translations that puts into perspective the history of the reception of the text.
