Teacher(s)	Brouwer Jan-Willem ;Weymans Wim ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	To identify the key-moments of the European integration, to underline individual and institutional constraints, to evaluate the impact of economical and external factors, to analyze the influence of internal factors as well as the potential influence of " attentive opinion ".
Aims	The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Written exam.
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. This class will be taught on campus as long as the sanitary conditions linked to the Covid-19 crisis allow this. Given that only 17 students are allowed in the lecture room, we may need to split the group in two or move to online teaching altogether.
Content	The student will be able to understand issues involved in several projects, crises and relaunches, which deal with political, economic, military or institutional questions. The student shall focus on converging or diverging elements, taken from different episodes of the European integration, asking how these crises have modified the paths, the plans, and the visions sketched by the so-called "founding fathers". Finally, the student will discover how history can shed new light on current debates.
Bibliography	See Moodle for details
Other infos	Prerequisite: none. Support: a table of contents and slides accompaning the lectures will be made available on Moodle.
