Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Aims: After completing this course, students will be able to: Identify and understand the main economic concepts underlying the build-up and functioning of the EMU Explain the power and institutional dynamics shaping the Eurozone governance Apply economic and political sciences concepts when analyzing contemporary EMU debates and reforms. Be Wikipedia stars!
Content	The main objectives of this master course are to explore, from an interdisciplinary perspective, the politics of the Economic and Monetary Union. This interdisciplinary perspective allows shedding light on both the power struggles between the Eurozone actors and the economic constraints and challenges they are facing. In particular, one of the main objectives is to understand how and why the Eurozone financial crisis occurred and what its political and societal consequences are. In order to understand EMU politics, we will focus on the structuring role of economic ideas and political institutions as well as on the strategies of global players and their unintended consequences. Before each course, you must read the compulsory reading and watch the documentary. You must also complete the Wikipedia-related assignments for each course on the Moodle dashboard.
