Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. This course is mid-way between a lecture and a seminar. The translation of the texts is prepared by the students. The philological explanations and the contextual commentaries are given by the teacher, but are also the object of a discussion with the students.
Content	The course is an in-depth study of the Sanskrit language and an introduction to literary Prakrits. The commented readings deal with poetical (kāvya) or technical (cāstra) texts in Sanskrit, of average or advanced difficulty level. The literary Prakrits to which the student may be introduced are Middle-Indian (epigraphical or dramatic) or Dravidian (manipravalam).
Inline resources	TThe online working tools related to the course are provided to the students directly or via Moodle.
