Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change.  Subject to the health context and the number of students enrolled, this course will be given in face-to-face mode (one half cohort in the even weeks, the other half cohort in the odd weeks) combined with a volume of work to be done independently (syllabus+ Moodle). The contact hours will mainly focus on interactive communication and will also aim at anticipating or solving problems encountered in the work to be done independently. The course is divided into 5 themes linked to daily life in Q1: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Life in a student town</li> <li>2. Youth culture</li> <li>3. Food and health</li> <li>4. Discovering the world</li> <li>5. Money and advertising</li> </ol> Revision and extension of general lexical knowledge and of specific vocabulary linked to the themes dealt with. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Revision of the grammatical structures specific to the Dutch language with the help of a power point diaporama on Moodle and the theory in the syllabus. Additional productive exercises are done in class.</li> <li>• Activation of receptive skills based on authentic material.</li> <li>• Oral conversation practice by means of role plays, etc...</li> </ul> Q2: this teaching unit is structured around themes, each of which includes receptive and productive activities aimed at consolidating and broadening vocabulary and grammar. This teaching unit focuses mainly on oral production about field-related themes. Video and audio fragments are used to illustrate the themes. Each theme will be followed by discussions or role plays giving the student the possibility to use the newly acquired vocabulary and structures. Particular emphasis on grammar points, likely to cause difficulties to French-speaking learners. The classroom activities require a certain amount of preparation on the part of the student (exercises, vocabulary, ...)
Content	This teaching unit involves that basic vocabulary and structures are trained, reinforced and expanded in order to prepare the students for the next teaching unit. It is structured around themes of general interest and field-related themes for each of which receptive and productive activities aimed at consolidating and broadening vocabulary and grammar are provided. Particular emphasis on grammar points, likely to cause difficulties to French-speaking learners.
