Les sacrements ne sont pas étranges, Paris, 1998 (Vivre – Croire – Célébrer) (20%) ; • an observation exercise of a Eucharistic liturgy (20%) ; • an exam of the entire course, based on questions given in advance (60%).
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. The course will consist in lectures, personal work on biblical and historical texts as well as on contemporary liturgical documents to develop students' analytical skills and their liturgical and theological sensitivity. Students will also have to observe a celebration of the Eucharist which will be discussed in a class session.
Content	After a general introduction which will concentrate on the implementation of the liturgical reform initiated by the Council, the course will proceed through general themes. For each theme, the corresponding liturgical rituals will be used. The theme "Christian initiation" will address the problematic of initiation from the renewal brought about by the liturgical approach of the adult catechumenate. The dossier "Sacrament of Reconciliation" will focus on the issues of new rituals and the difficulties encountered in its implementation. The "anointing of the sick" theme will pay attention to the passage from the "extreme unction" to the "anointing of the sick". For the "sacrament of marriage", the new ritual and reflection on the preparation of this sacrament will be studied. Finally, concerning ordinations, the course will focus on the ecclesiological issues of the choices made by the new ritual.
