

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q2

Teacher(s)	Defraigne Jean-Christophe ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	This course outlines and analyses the relations between Europe and developing economies from a long-term economic perspective.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understanding the main stakes of the economic and political relations between Europe and the developing economies</li> <li><sup>1</sup> Developing a multidisciplinary approach to Europe's international relations taking into account its historical, geographical, economic, institutional and political dimensions.</li> </ul>
Evaluation methods	Oral or written examination.
Content	It starts by analysing the historical evolution of economic and political relations between Europe and the developing economies. The course examines the structure of economic flows (trade, FDI, portfolio) between Europe and developing economies. It outlines and comments on the trade policies between the European Union the developing economies. The course provides case studies that highlight particular aspects of the relations between Europe and the developing world.
Faculty or entity in charge	EURO

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in European Studies	EURO2M	5
Advanced Master in European Business and Economic Policy	EBEP2MC	5		