

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1

Language :	French
Place of the course	Bruxelles Saint-Louis
Prerequisites	None.
Main themes	The course explores different fields of analysis. First, it examines the notion of "political integration". Second, it presents the European integration as a unique category which is developing its own process of institution-building through internal evolutions. Finally, the course examines the European political system and its environment. It presents the role and the behaviour of the different actors of the system.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 The aim of the course is to introduce the students to the political analysis of the European Union.
Evaluation methods	Written or oral examination.
Content	- Meaning of European integration and presentation of the different historical models of political integration. - The European integration as a process of political unification. - The European Union as political system and political regime. - Theories of European integration.
Faculty or entity in charge	EURO

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Advanced Master in EU Interdisciplinary Studies (shift schedule)	EUHD2MC	5		