The students should also be able to analyse reference books with a criticizing mind.</li> </ol>
Evaluation methods	Oral exam based on the portfolio (60%) and research report of the empirical study (40%). The empirical study being a group work, monitoring will be put in place in order to ensure active participation of all students. Individual grading will take the monitoring report into account. During the exam, the oral competence of the student will also be evaluated: 2 points could be lost in case of unsatisfactory language (fluency, grammar, vocabulary).
Teaching methods	Flipped classroom teaching method, group work for the empirical study.
Content	The course is an introduction to Dutch syntax focussing on different aspects of word order. A portfolio of scientific articles will give an overview of word order phenomena in Dutch, including regional and diamesic variation. The theoretical notions will be put into practice through an empirical study (replication of one of the port folio studies).
Bibliography	Portfolio d'articles scientifiques disponible sur Moodle et en forme imprimée à la DUC
