This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2021-2022 !

Teacher(s)	Doyen Anne-Marie ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	The course is intended for students who have followed the courses of ancient Greek at Bachelor level, or able to demonstrate a reading level considered sufficient by the lecturer.
Main themes	The course deals with the following themes: 1. The translation of two major Greek literary works of the Hellenistic and Roman period; 2. The problem of establishing the text; 3. Systematic commentary presenting the context of the work, as well as the literary and human values contained therein.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : In-depth analysis of works of Greek authors of the Hellenistic and Roman period. 1 At the end of this course, the student will be capable to translate, analyse and comment on texts of an advanced level. He will be able to explain the historic and cultural context, to bring out the human values expressed therein, as well as to undertake a personal research as an extension of the course.
Evaluation methods	Oral exam covering: - the texts studied during the course; - the oral presentation of the personal commentary prepared by the student.
Teaching methods	The translations prepared by the students will be corrected during the course, and will be the subject of the widest possible commentary. The use of several editions will highlight the problems of establishing the text.
Content	The authors chosen for the course are the poets Callimachus and Theocritus. After an introduction setting the author and his work in their context, the translation will be the subject of a methodical commentary. The students will be required to prepare a brief personal commentary of the authors and texts studied during the course, which they will present orally during the exam.
Bibliography	Éditions utilisées : 1. Le texte de base est celui du Thesaurus Linguae Graecae, soit généralement celui d'une édition d'Oxford; 2. Édition des Belles-Lettres notamment : Callimaque. Texte établi et traduit par E. Cahen, Paris, 1940. Théocrite. Texte établi et traduit par Ph.-E. Legrand, Paris, 1925. Une bibliographie complémentaire sera fournie au cours. Grammaire de référence : D. Planque, Grammaire grecque, 8e édition, Namur, 1977 (version pdf).
