Main themes	The seminar puts the principles of historical criticism through case study and the concrete analysis of sources of various natures and origins to work. It also allows us to explore concepts and methods, as well as the models and hypotheses the confrontation of documentary sources and theoretical analyses give rise to. During group working meetings, each participant, based on a personal preliminary work, presents his analysis of an aspect of the chosen theme, paying particular attention to heuristic and critical aspects, then submitting it for group evaluation. The procedures and steps in treatment, as well as the synthesis and conclusions are developed in common. By the deeper understanding of the historian's procedure it represents and the effort to communicate it involves, this seminar is direct preparation for the master memoir.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : By the end of this seminar, students should be able to treat a question from history from the viewpoint of heuristics, criticism of sources and data interpretation. <sup>1</sup> He should be able to write a research report delimiting the original question and synthesize hypotheses advanced, difficulties encountered and results obtained.
Evaluation methods	Evaluation based on active participation in the seminar and the capacity to present a personal work both orally and in writing.
Teaching methods	The seminar will combine sessions dedicated to methodology and oral presentations by the students, followed by the discussion of their work in progress. In order to complete their synthesis work, the students will confront the whole historiographical operation, including the search and analysis of archival documentation.
Content	This seminar analyses a problem of general history, placed within a specific context. It offers students the occasion to approach various questions of heuristics, criticism and interpretation of sources of contemporary history in an in-depth manner. It involves a work of synthesis, representing a real exercise in communicating scientific knowledge and hence contributes directly to preparing the Master memoir.
Other infos	Teaching materials : Student notes. Teaching : by the instructor and, in some cases, assistants assigned by the Department. Preferably, this seminar should be attributed to two instructors. Warning: this year, the seminar needs at least a passive understanding of Dutch.
