Consecutive interpreting practice lintp2420 UCLouvain English > French 2021 Q2 0 h + 45.0 h

Teacher(s)         Biond Tania (coordinator) ;           Language :         French           Place of the course         Louvain-la-Neuve           Prerequisites         Have completed the 'Consecutive Interpreting' course (LINTP2320)           Main themes         /           Learning outcomes         At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to :           Contribution of teaching unit to learning outcomes assigned to programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the following positi: 1, 1, 4, 2, 4, 3, 1, 3, 2, 6, 1, 7, 4, On completion of this course the student will be able to:
Place of the course         Louvain-la-Neuve           Prerequisities         Heve completed the 'Consecutive Interpreting' course (LINTP2320)           Main themes         /           Learning outcomes         At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : Contribution of teaching unit, the student is able to : Contribution of teaching unit to learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisitent of the following opois. 11, 14, 24, 31, 32, 51, 74 Unit contributes to the development and acquisitent of the following opois. 11, 14, 24, 31, 32, 51, 74 Unit contributes to the development and acquisitent of the following opois. 11, 14, 24, 31, 32, 51, 74           Learning outcomes         Signification of this course the student will be able to: - Express futently in French necessage originally delivered in Language C respecting the speaker's drift and purpose; - Use French accurately; - Use French accurately; - Use precent accurately; - Use precent accurately; - Demonstrate in in-depth knowledge of English outure: - Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose; - Use predendently implement: - Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose; - Use adapted presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose; - Use adapted presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the target audience or formation. - The main assessment criteria will be: - ecchnique - ecchnique - ecchnique - ecchnique - ecchnique - ecudety performance is s	Teacher(s)	Biondi Tania (coordinator) ;
Prerequisities         Have completed the 'Consecutive Interpreting' course (LINTP2320)           Main themes         /           Learning outcomes         At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : Contribution of teaching unit. to learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the following goals: 1.1, 1.4, 2.4, 3.1, 3.2, 6.1, 7.4           Learning outcomes         At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : Contribution of this course the student will be able to: - Completion of this course the student will be able to: - Completion of this course the student will be able to: - Use French accurately;         - The rench accurately;           1         - Rigorously and efficiently employ knowledge and know-how in the practice of consecutive interpreting: - Use french accurately;         - Demonstrate that he or she possesses broad general knowledge and is keen to develop further in this domain; - Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of English culture; - Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose; - Independently implement the measures necessary to improve interpreting skills in pursuit of continuing professional development;           Evaluation methods         On-going assessment criteria will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with during the term. The main assessment criteria will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with during the term.           Freaching methods         On-going assessment criteria will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with durin	Language :	French
Main themes       /         Main themes       /         Learning outcomes       At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to :         Contribution of teaching unit, to learning outcomes assigned to programme With regard to the learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the following goals: 1.1, 1.4, 2.4, 3.1, 3.2, 6.1, 7.4         On completion of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of this course the student will be able to: -       -         Image: State of the addition of t	Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main items       At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to :         Learning outcomes       At the end of this learning unit, to learning outcomes assigned to programme With regard to the learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the following goals: 1.1, 1.4, 2.4, 3.1, 3.2, 6.1, 7.4         On completion of this course the student will be able to: - Express fluently in French the message originally delivered in Language C respecting the speaker's drift and purpose; - Use French accurately; - Demonstrate that he or she possesses broad general knowledge and is keen to develop further in this domain: - Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of English culture; - Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose; - Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of English culture; - Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose; - Independently implement the measures necessary to improve interpreting skills in pursuit of continuing professional development;         Evaluation methods       Class-room activities. The main assessment criteria will be: - technique - accuracy of the message - quality of the language (grammar, choice of words, registar)       The students performance is subject to the teacher and class-mates appraisal. Avenues for improvement are put forward.         Content       The students performance is culture appealer studies curved up develop and the genese of the concey of the genesarg of the message in French, quality communicative skills.       The sequence increasingly longer and dense; compared to the first term.         Inline resources       /       The supagenese in English	Prerequisites	Have completed the 'Consecutive Interpreting' course (LINTP2320)
Evaluation methods       Contribution of teaching unit to learning outcomes assigned to programme         With regard to the learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the tollowing goals: 11, 11.4, 2.4, 3.1, 3.2, 6.1, 7.4         On completion of this course the student will be able to: <ul> <li>Express fluently in French the message originally delivered in Language C respecting the speaker's drift and purpose;</li> <li>Use French accurately;</li> <li>Demonstrate that he or she possesses broad general knowledge and is keen to develop further in this domain;</li> <li>Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of English culture;</li> <li>Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose;</li> <li>Independently implement the measures necessary to improve interpreting skills in pursuit of continuing professional development;</li> </ul> Evaluation methods     On-going assessment and final examination. At the exam, students will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with during the term. The main assessment criteria will be: - accuracy of the message - quality of the language (grammar, choice of words, register)         Teaching methods       Class-room activities. The students performance is subject to the teacher and class-mates appraisal. Avenues for improvement are put forward.         Content       Class-room activities, accuracy and fluent rendition of the message in French, quality communicative site. The speacets is is adjective, in-depth understanding analysis of as peech in English wordd stakes and is cultural peculiarities, accuracy and fluent rend	Main themes	1
Figure 1       With regard to the learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the following goals: 1.1, 1.4, 2.4, 3.1, 3.2, 6.1, 7.4         On completion of this course the student will be able to:       -         Express fluently in French the message originally delivered in Language C respecting the speaker's full and purpose:       -         Use French accurately;       1       -         Rigorously and efficiently employ knowledge and know-how in the practice of consecutive interpreting;       -         Demonstrate that he or she possesses broad general knowledge and is keen to develop further in this domain;       -         Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of English culture;       -         Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose;       -         The development;       -       Demonstrate that he or she possesses to and general knowledge and is keen to develop further in this domain;         Evaluation methods       On-going assessment and final examination.       At the exam, students will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with during the term.         The main assessment criteria will be:       -       -         - quality of the language (grammar, choice of words, register)       -         Teaching methods       Class-room activities.       -         The subdents performance is subject to t	Learning outcomes
At the exam, students will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with during the term. The main assessment criteria will be:		<ul> <li>With regard to the learning outcomes assigned to the Master's programme in Interpreting, this teaching unit contributes to the development and acquisition of the following goals: 1.1, 1.4, 2.4, 3.1, 3.2, 6.1, 7.4</li> <li>On completion of this course the student will be able to: <ul> <li>Express fluently in French the message originally delivered in Language C respecting the speaker's drift and purpose;</li> <li>Use French accurately;</li> </ul> </li> <li>Rigorously and efficiently employ knowledge and know-how in the practice of consecutive interpreting; <ul> <li>Demonstrate that he or she possesses broad general knowledge and is keen to develop further in this domain;</li> <li>Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of English culture;</li> <li>Adapt presentation (form and content) to the target audience respecting the speaker's purpose;</li> <li>Independently implement the measures necessary to improve interpreting skills in pursuit of</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
The students performance is subject to the teacher and class-mates appraisal. Avenues for improvement are put forward.         Content       This "Consecutive Interpreting Practise" is a follow-up to the previous "Consecutive Interpreting Technique" Course. Basically, this Unit carries over the same objectives: in-depth understanding and analysis of a speech in English, improving note-taking skills, faithful rendition of the speaker's train of thoughts, a fair knowledge of the English world stakes and its cultural peculiarities, accuracy and fluent rendition of the message in French, quality communicative skills. The speeches in English address topics linked to society and everyday life in English-speaking countries; the speeches become increasingly longer and denser, compared to the first term.         Inline resources       /         Bibliography	Evaluation methods	At the exam, students will be required to interpret a 6 to è minute-long speech on one of the topics dealt with during the term. The main assessment criteria will be: - technique -accuracy of the message
Basically, this Unit carries over the same objectives: in-depth understanding and analysis of a speech in English, improving note-taking skills, faithful rendition of the speaker's train of thoughts, a fair knowledge of the English world stakes and its cultural peculiarities, accuracy and fluent rendition of the message in French, quality communicative skills.         The speeches in English address topics linked to society and everyday life in English-speaking countries; the speeches become increasingly longer and denser, compared to the first term.         Inline resources       /         Bibliography	Teaching methods	The students performance is subject to the teacher and class-mates appraisal. Avenues for improvement are put
Bibliography	Content	<ul> <li>Basically, this Unit carries over the same objectives: in-depth understanding and analysis of a speech in English, improving note-taking skills, faithful rendition of the speaker's train of thoughts, a fair knowledge of the English world stakes and its cultural peculiarities, accuracy and fluent rendition of the message in French, quality communicative skills.</li> <li>The speeches in English address topics linked to society and everyday life in English-speaking countries; the</li> </ul>
	Inline resources	1
Other infos /	Bibliography
	Other infos	1

Faculty or entity in	LSTI
charge

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in Interpreting	INTP2M	4		٩			