Other infos	In 2022-2023, the theme of the lectures will be the Roman city. The course will focus on a variety of urbanistic issues, including the organisation and articulation of urban space in the Roman world, the role of public buildings and infrastructure. As part of the program in archaeology and art history, we will also look at the architecture, decoration and construction techniques of the various buildings and structures that make up a city. Rome, Ostia and central Italy will be the starting point for a reflection that will be extended to the entire Roman world, particularly in the western provinces of the Empire.
