Prerequisites	The prerequisite(s) for this Teaching Unit (Unité d'enseignement – UE) for the programmes/courses that offer this Teaching Unit are specified at the end of this sheet.
Main themes	The thesis in criminology is a personal and detailed work involving research and reflection and which testifies to the student's mastery of a specific criminological subject. It pursues the objectives indicated above. The follow-up of the thesis work is an individual effort as early as the second year of the Master's programme. In total autonomy, the student is completely responsible for the progress of his research and his thesis; he will receive exactly the advice and guidance that he requests from his sponsor.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 The objective of the thesis is to highlight the student's autonomy, critical understanding, other personal qualities and skills.
Evaluation methods	The marks allocated to the thesis cover all the student's tasks: written work and the viva.
Content	The thesis consists of around a hundred pages of written work and constitutes the culmination of the study programme. It will be defended in public. This is the opportunity for the student to develop, in the context of a specific criminological question and in an autonomous way, his own approach as regards thinking and research concerning what he acquired during the full course.
